Gym Partners

The collaboration between Balance Nutrition and Gyms is built on the foundation of enhancing member experience through holistic wellness, expert nutrition guidance, and digital innovation.

Our model for Gym Partners is designed for

- Zero Investment
- High Impact
- Member Retention
- Higher Revenue

On-Ground Implementation & Activation

This phase activates the Balance Nutrition model within the gym premises, with no cost to our gym partners.

A certified BN Dietitian will be deployed on-site to handle:

- Client consultations
- Full program delivery
- Lead conversion from both existing members and external walk-ins

All program operations, customer support, and backend logistics will be managed by the BN team.

Community building through our ecosystem

Promotional standees featuring Khyati Rupani will be installed as per proposal, drawing attention to the nutrition offering.

The partnership will be officially announced across BN's social media platforms and within our growing online community.

Engagement will begin with an on-ground workshop for gym trainers and staff, followed by a topical workshop for women clients conducted by Khyati Rupani herself—designed to build credibility, excitement, and conversions.

Revenue & Incentives:

15% of all net collections (including from walk-ins and non-members) will be transferred to our gym partners fortnightly.

A real-time dashboard will be provided to ensure full transparency on conversions, lead sources, and revenue.

3% of net collections will be reserved for trainer and staff incentives, encouraging active participation and internal advocacy.

Integrated Technology for Long-Term Engagement

Balance Nutrition will provide an integrated APP + dashboard solution custom-built for gyms. This includes:

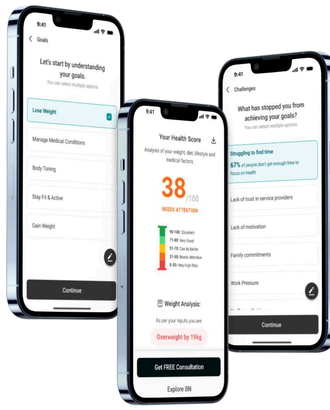
- Seamless client tracking
- Program management interface
- Tools for digital communication and engagement


This technology infrastructure will allow our gym partners to extend services beyond the gym, supporting hybrid wellness offerings and sustained brand loyalty.
